

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This project report is based on the study of risk management. Future is uncertain, we can't assume the future. In every department has the own problems.so the managing the risk is very essential. This study helps to understanding, how financial activities exactly done in the garment organizations. What type of the risk faced in financial dealings? How to solve those problems. The study conducted in at Karle International Pvt Ltd, Bengaluru for a period one month 15 days.

These study helps to understand, how the company distributed salary to the employees. Financial dealings with their contract clients. The managing risk is very essential to the company.

The projects helps me to learn financial activities in Karle Group. Financial activities like budgeting, deduct the day by day expenses, and Administration expenses, paying salaries to the employees. The study helps to understand financial activities of the Karle Group.