

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Inventory constitute is a significant contribution to the exercises of a few sort of association for the most part underway units. Businesses required crude materials, parts, gear and a portion of the semi completed merchandise for their creation. Some of administration association requires save parts and supplies are requiring for keep up their activities and so on. In the greater part of the associations center around stock administration, the estimation of materials when contrasted with expected contributions to the framework is high.

The study was conducted on Inventory Management with unique reference to SHIMUL shivamogga. It is a part of MBA program with subject of "A Study on stock administration of Shivamogga, davanagere, and Chithradurga milk association ltd.," has been embraced for a time of about a month and a half during January second to fourteenth February 2020. The investigation was led to think about the requesting levels of the organization and to know the stock administration strategies, systems and practices followed by the organization. To offer reasonable recommendations for the improvement of the stock administration framework.

The literature survey was help to comprehend different parts of the stock administration and control strategies of the organization. Proportion examination, ABC investigation and pattern investigation devices are utilized to dissect and decipher the adequacy of stock administration strategies received by the association and to make an inference whether the exhibition of an association is improving, stable. Utilizing the required, accessible information and various proportions were determined and thought about over the time of 3 years (2017-2019). Interpretation was drawn based on the comparison.