

Executive summary

It was a great pleasure to presenting project report on Malnad Alloy Casting Pvt Ltd. Which is located in Shivamogga – Bhadravathi industrial area, Machenahalli. And it belongs to foundry industry involving in production of metal castings like different kinds of valves and pumps with internationally acceptable quality standards. The project report contains the financial statements financial performance analysis of the company.

This project report provides an overview of the company's financial performance from last 5 years and the financial statement of the company gives the overall progress of the company. In this project we used Ratio analysis tool to know the company's financial capacity and performances. The project report gives all suitable information regarding company's ups and downs and se well as strength and weakness. So the report gives you detailed information about company profile and financial performances