

Executive summary

Being part of education programs, each student studying considering MBA must take up project on particular subject assign to him or her likewise I was also entrusted with the work of managing Investment opportunities in life insurance in kotak life.

Kotak life insurance is now a leading banking and financial institution or service organisation that offer a very wide range of financial institute/service that outcomes is like sphere of life. Mutual fund, commercial banking , stock broking and investment banking . that all are the group which diverse all the needs of the financial data and the more focuse on corporate sector.

This project is about investment opportunities that are being provided by kotak life insurance. Which is necessary requirement of every individual now a days. In fact In India there is always a problem of unemployment which create an income inequality in the country which in turn imbalances the county's economy.

From another side investment opportunities create a future stability and security for individuals. This in turn will help in enhancement of county's economic growth. There are two aspects in this project work, one career growth and foundation option and the other one is investment importance to secure future actions.