

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Kumari bank Ltd is one of the pioneering bank in Nepal. Banks are playing major role in this modern economy. They are become a backbone for countries activities. They support various activities of the economy and they assist various medium and small scale business by providing loans. Banks are helping the country by way of increasing GDP and providing employment opportunities. In this report I made an effort to understand the different loan aspects of Kumari Bank Ltd Nepal and I also analyse the roles of different loan on economy and on customers.

This project gave me a vast knowledge exposure and I did the assignment for six weeks and I understand the loan aspects of Kumari Bank Ltd Nepal. In this report the first part includes vision, mission, industry and company related information, SWOT analysis and financial statements of the company. Second part includes the background of the study and literature review. Third part includes the Research design. Fourth chapter deals with the interpretation and analysis. Final part includes Findings, Suggestions and Conclusion.

Through the study I came to know the different loans available in Kumar Bank Ltd Nepal and I also analyze the different loan aspects in detail. This project covers the topic of “A study on loan analysis”.