

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report is the study of The Punnayur panchayath service Co-operative Bank, Ltd's assets and liabilities management. The principle objective is to comprehend the issues associated with keeping up and overseeing resources and liabilities. The examination has been led based on auxiliary information The investigation was kept to a time of five monetary years from 2014-2020. The necessary auxiliary information for the examination was gathered through various sites, yearly reports of the bank and various diaries . to make the examination significant – progressed measurable apparatuses like proportions and rates are applied. From the examination plainly The Punnayur panchayath service co-operative Bank, Ltd. Anticipates produce a more positive assistance sooner rather than later. The monetary record of the bank has been steady and gives a trace of development and extension. .