PREFACE

SVASTAARKA - It is a sanskrit word where "SVASTAAM" means healing and "AARKA" means essence.

The concept is to create a green space to calm the chaos of life. It not may be the perfect solution to bring order tot he chaos but to calm the chaos that may brew the storm.

The resort is based on the concept of island. The accomodation villas are placed around pools. Each cluster consists of an organic shaped pool surrounded by villas. The resort also has a meditation hall, restaurant, yoga pavillion, medic centre and an admin, along with an ascillary block that consists of massage and spa centres.

The thesis topic for the design proposal, I have chosen as holistic resort. It is called SVASTAARKA, where svasta means “healing” and aarka means “essence”. The resort is created to provide a place to calm your mind and the chaos by being near nature and natural elements that will heal the body and make you a new person with experience of spending time here.
